

Haiku a Day

Snow falls around me

Winter is here with a bang!

The wind is so cold.

Okay, so NaNoWriMo didn't go very far for me — around 6000 words. But, hey, that's 6000 words that had never existed before, so that has to count for something.

It's cold outside, cold enough that there the little gear indicator in my car lags considerably behind as I shift gears. Colder than Dick Cheney's heart, that's how cold it is. But, hey, I'm wearing a tuque that I was given at the Bohemian Poetry Slam tonight, so I'm right as rain.

See you next month, and next year.

Enjoy.
